

Friendly Cultures

We had a visitor who came to talk to us about how we can be friends with people from different cultures.

We played games with our friends which involved us helping each other by putting each other's shoes on and throwing and catching a ball.

We also spoke about how even when people are different to you, you can still be their friend.

