

COLOUR MATCHING

To explore the colours in our outdoor area, we used paint cards.

We used the paint cards to identify the colours of natural objects that we found.

This activity helped us to practise our speaking and listening skills because we were communicating with our partner and talking about what we could see in our area.

We were also being artists as we were talking about the different shades of colour we could see.

