

Celebrating Onam by creating pookalams

We thought carefully about size, colour and shape when making our pookalamas. We worked as a team.

We used chalk and natural materials including leaves, stones and shells to create pookalam patterns.

Pookalams are made during Onam which is harvest in Kerala, India. They are made by filling the circular shape with flowers.

Here are our finished pookalamas.

